

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clearly not a move which serves the public interest.

As one who was attending broadcasting school during, of all times, the Viet Nam War era, and who covered the local protests at Colorado College following the Kent State shootings, as a class assignment, I feel well enough qualified to speak on the obligations of those who use the public airways to make their living, and on the attitudes prevalent during that turbulent time in our history.

From what I hear of "Stolen Honor" it is not a balanced and objective report. Those who were in the subjective position of P.O.W.s could only know what their captors told them. The V.C. did not need an excuse to be inhumane. They already were to start with. Thank you.
